Cheryl Harris wins the 2017 Tools for Life Leadership Award at the Aging and Disability Resource Connection (ADRC) Healthy Communities Summit

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Augusta, Georgia | July 2017 – Cheryl Harris, Access to Services Section Manager with the Georgia Division of Aging Services, was presented with the prestigious 2017 Tools for Life Assistive Leadership Award on June 7, 2017. Cheryl won the hotly contested prize over other nominees throughout Georgia.

The Tools for Life Assistive Technology Awards Ceremony has been a tradition within Georgia for the last 21 years. The Tools for Life Leadership Award recognizes and honors individuals who have been a catalyst for positive change through proactive leadership skills by using or promoting assistive technology for living, learning, working or playing. This award was created by Tools for Life, Georgia’s AT Act to promote creativity and encourage AT and universal design principles for equal access of all people.

Cheryl accepted the Tools for Life Leadership Award in person in front of 250 aging and assistive technology professionals from throughout Georgia at the annual ADRC Healthy Communities Summit. Cheryl rose above the other nominees for a variety of reasons; including coordinating with Georgia’s 12 Area Agencies on Aging (AAAs) to help older Georgians maintain independence and remain safely in their homes and communities.

Cheryl received a unique hand-crafted bowl created exclusively for the Tools for Life AT Award Winners by Georgia artisans, In the Woods Studio, LLC. These beautiful pieces serve as a reminder of the knowledge, skills and abilities that overflow from Cheryl’s “bowl” as she assists aging residents of Georgia stay independent.

Tools for Life, Georgia's Assistive Technology Act Program, is dedicated to increasing access to and acquisition of assistive technology (AT) devices and services for Georgians of all ages and disabilities so they can live, learn, work and play independently and with greater freedom in communities of their choice.
